

“The world would swing if I were king.”

- Jonathan Rizzo

As a lasting memory to his life and in support of the charities that he felt passionately about, his parents, Mary and Mike Rizzo established The Jonathan Rizzo Memorial Foundation. Jonathan’s zeal to help others was an integral part of his being, and he embraced and embodied the concept of becoming a “Man for Others” - one of the basic tenets of the program that helps develop “complete” young men at Boston College High School. Jonathan’s experiences at BCHS shaped his persona and led to a life of giving where it was needed.

The focus of the Foundation’s giving has evolved over the years to providing assistance to families in need of basic requirements such as food, clothing, shelter, heating oil, and even non-basic needs like toys for children at Christmas. Things that so many of us take for granted but are simply not possible for some without help. We will continue to support the BC High programs, and other individuals and organizations who, in our opinion, best demonstrate the qualities of compassion, friendship, trust and integrity that made Jonathan the person and friend that he was. However, in these difficult economic times people need help at a very real and personal level and this is where we can have the greatest impact on their lives.

Through your generosity, in the ten years since its inception, the Foundation has been able to provide assistance in many areas including:

Christmas in the City
Children’s Garden of Peace
BC High Families/Students in Need of Assistance
BC High Awards - Graduating Seniors
Silver Lake Awards - Graduating Seniors
Crossroads for Kids
Plymouth Salvation Army
Thanksgiving/Christmas Food & Gift Baskets to more than 500 families
Back to school clothes and supplies for over 200 children
South Shore Food Pantry
Summer food support for elementary school families
Emergency food/utilities/clothing/medical assistance for over 100 families
Health care and living expenses for college student in need
Funeral Expenses for families in need

As always, we thank you for allowing us to keep Jonathan’s spirit of giving alive.
